CSER OPEN HOUSE
Center for the Study of Ethnicity and Race

Monday, February 29, 12-1pm
420 Hamilton Hall

Explore a major in Ethnicity and Race Studies
Meet faculty and current students
Lunch will be served

Asian American Studies
Comparative Ethnic Studies
Latin@ Studies
Native American / Indigenous Studies
Individualized Courses of Study

CSER ALUMNI PROFILES

Where are they now? What are they doing?

Ryan Fukumori, USCDornsife
Comparative Ethnic Studies Major,
Asian American Studies Concentrator,
Class of 2009
“CSER was highly responsible for a lot of my professional and intellectual development.”

Justin Ifill, Ifill Events, LLC
Latino Studies Major, Class of 2006
“Through my Latino Studies program, I was able to be a more well-rounded person in general and was able to relate and communicate with all types of people.”

Elisabeth ‘Lizzie’ Jin Lee, Goodwin Procter, LLP
Comparative Ethnic Studies Major,
focused on Latino Studies, Class of 2011
“CSER has always encouraged me to take my passions and run with it…I don’t think there are many other departments that take students under their wings and foster intellectual and practical growth.”