Columbia Student Enterprises (CSE)

APPLICATION DEADLINE EXTENDED

Gain real world management experience!
The mission of the Columbia Student Enterprises program is to provide students with a unique opportunity to cultivate and develop transferable entrepreneurship and enterprise management skills through leading and running student-operated businesses. Participants of this program emerge as experienced business managers, with a strong foundation in leadership, business ethics, and professional responsibility through direct, hands-on experience.

The following three agencies make up today’s Columbia Student Enterprises:

- Columbia Bartending Agency & School of Mixology (CBA)
- Inside New York (INY)
- Columbia University Tutoring & Translating Agency (CUTTA)

CSE Managers have the opportunity to gain real world experience in the following areas:

- Professional Skills – Time Management, Project Management, Team building, Productivity and Systems
- Soft Skills – Problem Solving, Teamwork, Creativity, and Effective Communication

Program Features:

- Serve as a Managing Director at one of the three agencies for a one year term
- Salary and eligible for a performance bonus at the end of their term
- One and a half months of pre-professional training and monthly professional development workshops
