“W” denotes the faculty teaching the class. Possibilities include: C = Columbia College, E = Engineering and Applied Science, BC or X = Barnard College, W = Interfaculty, F = General Studies, V = Interschool course with Barnard

“1105” denotes the level of the course. 1000 level courses are typically introductory, 2000 are intermediate, 3000 level are advanced undergraduate, 4000 level and above are graduate

“x” classes are offered in the fall, “y” in the spring

ECON W1105x or y Principles of Economics 4 pts. Corequisites: ECON W1155 recitation section with the same instructor. How a market economy determines the relative prices of goods, factors of production, and the allocation of resources and the circumstances under which it does it efficiently. Why such an economy has fluctuations and how they may be controlled. Recitation Section Required.

The number of points is directly related to how many contact hours are spent in the classroom

Prerequisites or corequisites will be listed here when courses require prior knowledge of a subject or concurrent enrollment in a recitation or lab
