THE FU FOUNDATION SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING AND APPLIED SCIENCE

Please answer these questions and bring the page with you to your initial appointment with your adviser in the Center for Student Advising during New Student Orientation. Your answers will provide a starting point for your conversation with your adviser, which will continue throughout your four years at Columbia.

Name: ___________________________ UNI: ___________ Cell phone #: ___________________________

Possible majors: ___________________________

Interests/sports/extracurricular activities: ___________________________

Possible course schedule for the fall term:
(Please keep in mind that in your first term you must take either University Writing or Gateway lab, Physics, Chemistry, and Calculus. Your level of Physics, Chemistry, and Calculus will depend on AP/IB scores as well as placement exams given during New Student Orientation. *Indicate several choices for your 5th course.)

1. Calculus
2. Physics
3. Chemistry
4. Gateway/Univ Writing
5. *

What thing(s) do you most want to accomplish during your four years at Columbia? (These can be academic or extracurricular.)

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

What should I know about you (that I won’t find out by reading your admissions application)?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

What subject are you curious about but know nothing about?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________