Fraternity and Sorority Life Graduate Hall Director Position Description

Position begins August 8, 2016 and ends May 20, 2017. A limited number of summer 2017 GHD positions will be available.

Reporting to an Associate Director (AD) for Residential Life or the Associate Director of Fraternity & Sorority Life, the Graduate Hall Director (GHD) supports Residential Life in its efforts to enhance the residential experience within the Columbia undergraduate community. A live-in position, the GHD provides leadership for Residential Life student staff in an assigned area. By maintaining visibility and being approachable to student staff and residents, the GHD helps educate residents on University policies and builds community in the area of oversight. Each GHD position varies depending on area demographics, and there may be additional opportunities to work in the following specialized areas: Fraternity & Sorority Life, Special Interest Communities, Faculty-in-Residence programs, and the Residence Hall Leadership Organization.

Qualifications
Candidates must be full-time graduate students at Columbia University, in a degree-granting program. Prior Residence Life experience preferred. (Note: First and second year law, medicine, business, fine arts, and journalism students are not eligible candidates.)

Remuneration
- Housing within Columbia University’s residence halls (valued at $10,000) and a $6,000 stipend for the academic year. Housing assignments vary in size and configuration by residence hall.

Provide guidance and leadership to the group around student leader support, logistical planning and management, and policy and procedure education
- Advocate for the council’s needs and communicate to the Associate Director regarding council work
- Advise five to seven individual organizations on issues such as academic achievement, chapter operations, officer transition, community relations, programming, and policy compliance to support their efforts in meeting annual goals and standards
- Assist chapters by regularly with chapter president, approving space/equipment reservation, and serve as liaison between local chapter, University administration, and national governance.
- Educate members on and ensure adherence to all National, local and university policies.
- Assist the council with budget, expenditures, space/equipment reservations, and connection to various University resources
- Attend weekly council meetings, council programs, departmental trainings/retreats for advisors, and weekly advisor meetings

On-Call & Incident Follow-Up
- Serve within an on-call rotation as a first responder for emergency situations involving Columbia College and Fu Foundation School of Engineering and Applied Science undergraduate students
- While on call, respond to incidents within 15 minutes in a calm and responsible manner, while exercising good judgment
- Utilize the case management system Maxient to document and follow up on incidents
- Be familiar with campus and community resources and be able to provide this information to residents
- Maintain confidentiality and effectively share information when appropriate
- Work with the Residential Life Associate Director On-Call to make appropriate referrals for residents to partner offices for additional support when needed
- Assist the Associate Director in meeting with students regarding conduct and wellness issues

Administrative Responsibilities
- Respond to email within a timely manner
- Hold and conduct consistent office hours in the Office of Undergraduate Student Life
- Regularly update FSL website
- Assist the Associate Director in overseeing the area budget
- Serve on a departmental committee
Personal & Professional Development

- Attend monthly GHD development meetings
- Meet with Associate Director regularly for one-on-one supervision
- Attend weekly Fraternity and Sorority Life team meetings
- Role model appropriate and inclusive behavior at all times including, but not limited to, monitoring online self-content and upholding university policies
