Graduate Hall Director Position Description

Position begins August 7, 2017 and ends May 23, 2018. A limited number of summer 2018 GHD positions will be available.

Reporting to an Associate Director (AD) of Residential Life, the Graduate Hall Director (GHD) supports Residential Life in its efforts to enhance the residential experience within the Columbia undergraduate community. A live-in position, the GHD provides leadership for Residential Life student staff in an assigned area. By maintaining visibility and being approachable to student staff and residents, the GHD helps educate residents on University policies and builds community in the area of oversight. Each GHD position varies depending on area demographics, and there may be additional opportunities to work in the following specialized areas: Fraternity & Sorority Life, Special Interest Communities, Faculty-in-Residence programs, and the Residence Hall Leadership Organization.

Qualifications
Candidates must be full-time graduate students at Columbia University in a degree-granting program. Prior Residence Life experience preferred. (Note: First and second year law, medicine, business, fine arts, and journalism students are not eligible candidates.)

Remuneration
- Housing within Columbia University’s residence halls (valued at $10,000) and a $6,000 stipend for the academic year. Housing assignments vary in size and configuration by residence hall.
- Dining Meal Plan

Student Staff Development & Supervision
- Supervise approximately 10 student staff
- Provide on-going support to student staff, having one on one meetings with each staff member
- Organize and facilitate a weekly staff meeting (staff meetings are scheduled for Tuesdays at 10:00pm)
- Evaluate student staff throughout a continuous performance appraisal process
- Facilitate training sessions for the student staff during the August and Winter Recharge Trainings
- Review and evaluate student staff programs, including program proposals and evaluations

Advising
- Serve as staff advisor to hall council, with accountability to the department for the council’s progress. Provide guidance and leadership to the group around student leader support, logistical planning and management, and policy and procedure education
- Advocate for the council’s needs and communicate to the Associate Director and Student Leadership Committee Chair regarding council work
- Support Senior Resident Adviser and other student staff to mentor the council, communicate to the residential community regarding hall council, and delegate administrative tasks as appropriate
- Assist the council with budget, expenditures, space/equipment reservations, and connection to various University resources
- Attend weekly hall council meetings, hall council programs, departmental trainings/retreats for advisors, and monthly advisor meetings

Incident Follow-Up
- Utilize the case management system Maxient to document and follow up on incidents
- Be familiar with campus and community resources and be able to provide this information to residents
- Maintain confidentiality and effectively share information when appropriate
- Work with the Associate Director On-Call to make appropriate referrals for residents to partner offices for additional support when needed
- Assist the Associate Director in meeting with students regarding conduct and wellness issues

Administrative Responsibilities
- Respond to email within a timely manner
- Assist the Associate Director in monitoring facilities and maintenance issues within assigned buildings
- Assist the Associate Director in overseeing the area budget
- Facilitate an RA Seminar Course
- Serve on a departmental committee
- Serve on departmental collateral assignment or project
- Other duties as assigned
Personal & Professional Development

- Attend monthly GHD development meetings
- Meet with Associate Director regularly for one-on-one supervision
- Role model appropriate and inclusive behavior at all times including, but not limited to, monitoring online self-content and upholding university policies
