MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS PRESENTS

IDENTITY & INCLUSION

a series of workshops on building a socially conscious community

Join us for a free series of four interactive diversity and inclusion workshops open to all members of the Columbia community, accessible to a variety of prior engagement levels, and facilitated with warmth by the members of the Multicultural Affairs team. Come to one or come to many!

COLUMBIA COLLEGE
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK

COLUMBIA ENGINEERING
The Fu Foundation School of Engineering and Applied Science
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17

UNCONSCIOUS BIAS
3:00PM - 5:00PM
Through presentation, discussion, and interactive dialogue exercises, this workshop offers an introduction to unconscious bias, the neural processes that guide our snap judgments, and strategies for mitigating implicit assumptions.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22

RACE & IDENTITY
5:30PM - 7:00PM
In this collaborative session, participants will explore the social construction of race in the United States and examine how our identities, experiences, and histories are shaped by these social and cultural constructs.

FRIDAY, MARCH 2

POWER, PRIVILEGE, OPPRESSION
10:30AM - 12:30PM
Participants will explore “isms” and discuss how systems of oppression are created and enforced. Participants will examine ways in which they can create more equitable spaces on campus and become allies to others.

FRIDAY, MARCH 30

CU SAFE ZONE
1:00PM - 4:00PM
This training provides foundational knowledge needed to support and act in solidarity with LGBTQ+ communities at Columbia and beyond. This campus-wide program was designed to educate and visibly identify students, faculty, and staff who commit to creating inclusive spaces for LGBTQ+ folks at Columbia.
